Lake Eyre has flooded!

More dates just released - departs June to October 2019

Floodwaters from Australia's north have transformed Kati Thanda-Lake Eyre into a desert oasis, an extremely rare occurrence. The lake takes on a pink hue, while a vast array of bird life, including white pelicans and finches, begin to thrive. See this natural masterpiece spring to life with Poached-egg Daisies and Sturt Desert Peas in full bloom. One of the most spectacular views are the floodplains running between the sand dunes. There's no better way to witness this rare natural phenomenon than on a 4WD and air safari with APT.
